made by the Archaeological Survey was not approved on the ground that the Survey had no technical staff to do the work properly. In regard to the other suggestions mentioned in the list (Page 5) the Chief Engineer recommended that it is not expedient to totally exempt them & that they may be asked to pay at least one fourth of the mileage grants. The Dy Collectors concerned may perhaps be consulted about this, as under G.O. dt 27-2-30 it is the D.C. & the Chief Engr who have to finally fix the charges regularly each Survey should forwarded.
